

Newcomer News

Information About
Community Programs

REGINA REGION LOCAL IMMIGRATION PARTNERSHIP - NEWCOMER NEWS #8 - FALL 2018

Ehrlo Sport Venture

#EVERYONEPLAYS

Name: Ehrlo Sport Venture - Free Sports Leagues (ages 6 to 16)

Contact: sportventure@ranchehrlo.ca

Website: ehrlo.com/sport-venture

Important Information:

- A great opportunity for children to be active and have fun
- Travel vouchers are provided for those needing transportation
- Volunteers are welcomed

There are different sports for each season: basketball (early spring), baseball (spring), soccer (summer), football (fall) and hockey (winter)

Upcoming Sport: Ehrlo Outdoor Hockey League - Jan to March/19

Name: Communicable Disease Program

Call: 306-766-7790

To report or get advice about possible communicable diseases (those that are easily spread in a community), such as:

- measles
- mumps
- whooping cough

Public Health nurses help to:

- Arrange testing and treatment
- Reduce spread to others

For information on HIV and/or Hepatitis C

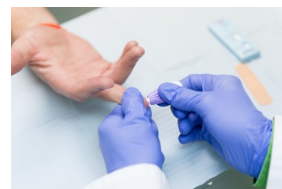

Call: 306-766-7625

- Public Health Nurses and Social Workers work closely with those who have HIV and/or Hepatitis C

Other Services:

- Testing for Blood Borne Infections (BBI) and Sexually Transmitted Infections (STI)

Website: <http://www.rqhealth.ca/department/population-and-public-health/communicable-disease-and-sexual-health-program>

Name: REALI (Recreation through Art and Life Skills)

Where: Mackenzie Art Gallery
3475 Albert Street

Contact: 306-359-6514

Email: info@reginaiwc.ca

Who Can Attend? Newcomer women and children

(Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, Temporary Residents, Work Permit holders and Visitors)

Registration: No pre-registration necessary. You can register when you arrive.

Program Hours:

Saturdays from 10:30 am to 12:30 pm

Important Information:

- Interpretation services available - contact RIWC if you need an interpreter
- Free childminding while mothers attend the workshops

Name: YWCA

A sample of Family Programs are listed below:

Between Generations - a special volunteer opportunity for seniors. Volunteer 'grandparents' come once a week to read and play with preschool children.

To volunteer, contact: YWCA Child Care at 306-525-2141

Big Sisters - a young girl (Little Sister) can be matched with a female YWCA volunteer (Big Sister) for friendship and mentoring.

For more information, contact: 306-525-2141, extension 123

Babysitting 101 - teaches youth (12 and older) skills and safety to become a responsible and effective babysitter, during two days of training. Registration cost is $70.00.

For more information, contact: ywcaregina@ywcaregina.com

Many other programs are offered at the YWCA!

<http://ywcaregina.com/Programs/index.html>

Thank you to our project partners and funder:

Contact RRLIP: www.rrlip.ca

Email: info@rrlip.ca

306-791-6846